Mystro 11 / Mystro 10:

Mystro has been around since many years, previously also in less powerful versions known by other names.

Now the time has come to launch a new version. There are several improvements in what the software can do for you, as well as various things made easier in handling.

Some brush up remains necessary, and one or the other add-on in functionality might also happen.

All in all however the new version is functional and in use by myself, so I trust I can release it for clients soon – and so I am promoting it with a special offer now.

If you grab this opportunity, you will get the new Mystro 11 when polished, and you will receive existing Mystro 10 for the time in between, so you have most of the functionality immediately and can get some experience in utilizing the power of this unique software.

Please enjoy the videos for some ideas on what Mystro 11 can do for you, even though the videos as such are not as good as the software itself.

By the way, lately I have used Mystro to develop a standardized product for end customers. You might be interested in taking a look (or even ordering) what's possible with software that seamlessly integrates BaZi / Date Selection / Feng Shui:

OK, you won't get exactly identical evaluations with Mystro - I don't want any direct competition for my own product. But you can generate the basic data with Mystro and use it for your own work.

If you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact me – I'm always happy to help.
